

Programme for introduction and visitor workshop on Problem Based and Project Based Learning

This workshop is an introduction workshop to the Aalborg PBL model and in general problem based and project based learning.

Learning outcomes:

- participants to gain a knowledge of PBL as a system and the various elements in the system: problems, projects, courses, learning objectives, assessment, students process skills (PBL-skills), content,
- participants to address critical issues such as: students' "gap" of knowledge and skills, cooperation among teachers, authority, learning
- participants to develop a dynamic to do list for utilising PBL principles

Venue: Nybrogade 6, room 1.133

Day 1 – March 27

- 09.00: Welcome by head of UNESCO Chair Anette Kolmos and Erik de Graaff
09.30: Why PBL – problem based and project based learning and definition of PBL- models and learning principles
 - The Aalborg Model examples of project examples
 - The Maastricht Model10.30: Project Work
12.00: Lunch
13.00: Case studies with Lars Bo Henriksen
14.00 PBL and 1 year programme with Claus Monrad Spliid
14:30: Introduction to specific programmes and visiting students with Claus Monrad Spliid – Panel question session with students.
16.30: End of the day

Day 2 – March 28

- 09.00: Visit to Specific departments
12.00: Lunch at Vestre Havnepromenade
13.00: Staff development and PBL courses for students by Erik de Graaff
14.30: Question session & issues not covered with Erik de Graaff
15.00 End of day

Coffee, tea, water, fruit and cake will be offered during both days.